

Richard Cavill (Owner of Cav's Steakhouse and Butchery and father of Nicole and James Cavill)

One of the busiest days of the year at Cav's Steakhouse and with Fathers Day around the corner on Sunday 6 September we took the chance to sit down with our busy restaurant owner and Father of two to see what he loves about being a Dad!

What is the best part of being a Dad?

Best part of being a Dad so far is watching them grow into little adults with new habits coming and going (Both good and bad).

Your favorite activity to do with the kids?

Boating is the families' favourite activity and walking the dogs with a soccer ball is always entertaining.

Favorite meal you cook for or with the kids?

Lamb roast is all our favourites and the kids get there little aprons on and do the veggies on their little stools. Very satisfying and fun.

Your best piece of advice you have given your kids?

I think the two main things that we can instil into our children is honesty and considerations for others. While this seems to be a work in progress and a very slow progress we will conquer I'm sure.
